Financial Institutions and Archives: Call for Participation

The Archivists Round Table of Metropolitan New York, Inc. (A.R.T.) is organizing a one-day symposium during the 2014 New York Archives Week. The topic this year is Financial Institutions and Archives. This encompasses not just financial institutions such as banks, but also organizations that maintain or have inherited financial records. What happens when an institution or archives inherits financial records? Or when banks merge or absorb other banks? How is the environment of financial archives changing? What are the biggest challenges that financial institutions and archives face? What are the current best practices? The day will focus on presentations and panel discussions, studies, strategies, research, analyses, and use studies with the aim of bringing together archivists, industry experts, records managers, librarians, museum professionals, professors, scholars, academic researchers and the general public.

|                     |                       |                             |

The Archivists Round Table of Metropolitan New York, Inc. (A.R.T.) thanks MetLife for being a major sponsor of New York Archives Week since 1989. A.R.T. also thanks the Lucius N. Littauer Foundation for their generous continued support of New York Archives Week and A.R.T. programming. This event would not be possible without their support.

A.R.T. thanks the Center for Jewish History (CJH) for their ongoing partnership in co-sponsoring events for New York Archives Week and throughout the year.
