

NEA/A.R.T. SPRING 2018 JOING MEETING Scholarship Announcement

The Archivists Round Table of Metropolitan New York, Inc. (A.R.T.) is offering three scholarships, each in the amount of $175, to help students, archivists, librarians, and others with archives or records management responsibilities attend the NEA/A.R.T Spring Meeting in New Haven, Connecticut on March 22-24, 2018, with the theme “Rise Up” focusing on concepts of archival advocacy.

Scholarship funds may go toward travel, lodging, meals, workshops, and conference registration.

Each recipient is required to attend all three meeting days (March 22-24).

Eligibility

Preference will be given to applicants who are:

- First-time conference attendees,
- Students enrolled in an archives, library science, or records management program, and
- Paid or volunteer employees working in an archival, library science, or records management position

You must be a current A.R.T. member in order to apply for a scholarship.

Application

Submit complete applications to the A.R.T. Scholarship Committee headed by Cristina Vignone, Vice President of A.R.T., at veep@nycarchivists.org, with the subject line: “NEA/A.R.T Scholarship Application.” Complete applications will be in a .doc format and will consist of:
